COWDREY CEMETERY

Cowdrey Cemetery is located off of Route 71, Oswego Township, Kendall County, Illinois. From the intersection of Routes 34 and 71, follow Route 71 southwest for 4.3 miles. On the north side of Route 71 is a small lane. Follow this lane back to the cemetery. This cemetery is not easily seen from Route 71 as it is behind a house and a barn. There is a gate across the lane, which has a sign reading Cowdrey Cemetery.

Cowdrey Cemetery was recorded in the spring of 1990 by Charles Colegrove, Tod Kerscher, Mickie Meegan, Delores Nelson, James and Sharon Peterson and Stephanie Todd, members of the Kendall County Genealogical Society. It was read starting at the west side and from right to left. The attached map shows the cemetery as it appears today.

The following information is a transcription of genealogical data from stones in this cemetery. Anything underlined is information the copier was not sure about. We have read these stones to the best of our abilities. Some of the stones are very old and worn away with age. In addition, some have been mended or reset. There may be errors, but we have recorded them as we felt they read.

This cemetery has recently come under the jurisdiction of Oswego Township and they have opened it up for additional burials.
